RE: Grievance Against Justin Coleman
(ISB File No. 25-169C)

Dear Mr. Switzer:

This acknowledges receipt of your grievance to the Idaho State Bar. Your grievance has been scanned into our paperless system. An electronic copy of the file will be maintained by the Idaho State Bar consistent with Idaho Bar Commission Rule 552.

Our office's jurisdiction is limited to determining whether professional conduct violates the Idaho Rules of Professional Conduct. Our office evaluates whether professional conduct violates those rules, and if so, the appropriate disciplinary sanction. Please be aware, the time necessary to evaluate the information provided and investigate it varies depending on the complexity of the cases pending in our office. Our office will provide you with a written disposition of your grievance after we complete our review and evaluation.

Given the limited jurisdiction, while we are evaluating your grievance, any legal remedies you may have must be pursued by you through other available legal channels. This office cannot and does not give legal advice. Do not wait for the outcome of the Idaho State Bar grievance process to pursue any potential private legal claims that you may have, because there may be time limitations on any such claims. If you have any questions about pursuing legal remedies or claims and are not currently represented, you should consider discussing the matter with private legal counsel. Additional resources, including the Idaho State Bar Lawyer Referral Service, can be found on our website at www.isb.idaho.gov.

Very truly yours,
