Case No. _____

PETITION FOR WRIT OF MANDAMUS, FOR EMERGENCY STAY, FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER, AND FOR REFERRAL TO FEDERAL PROSECUTOR

Petitioner Corey M. Switzer, pro se, respectfully petitions this Court for a writ of mandamus and emergency relief to halt a disciplinary process that has degenerated into an overt, admitted campaign of procedural obstruction, evidence suppression, and the absolute refusal to accept complaints about its own officials' misconduct. Given the multi-jurisdictional nature of the underlying allegations and the appearance of impropriety within Idaho's oversight structure, Petitioner further requests referral to a special federal prosecutor.

INTRODUCTION: A PROCESS IN OPEN CONTEMPT OF DUE PROCESS, REQUIRING FEDERAL OVERSIGHT

This Petition reveals a disciplinary system in collapse. The Idaho State Bar has:

1. Suppressed evidence of state-level retaliation;
2. Engaged in ex parte communications and prejudgment;
3. Admitted it will delete grievances against its own officials; and
4. Demonstrated institutional incapacity for self-correction.

The gravity of these procedural violations is compounded by the substantive allegations underlying the bar complaints: multi-state corruption involving police bribery, tax fraud, and retaliatory acts by public officials across Idaho and Washington. The oversight structure itself appears compromised by relationships between Idaho's highest judicial officer, the Bar, and parties implicated in related Washington proceedings.

Only extraordinary relief from this Court, coupled with federal oversight, can restore integrity to this process.

FACTUAL & PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

A. The Multi-Jurisdictional Underlying Allegations.

Petitioner's bar complaints (25-168a, 25-169a, 25-187a) stem from his reports of police bribery and tax fraud in Nez Perce County, Idaho. The alleged retaliatory pattern crosses state lines, involving:

- A false police report filed in Clarkston, Washington;
- Unlawful use of Washington public funds to defend a judge (Burns) before the Washington Supreme Court;
- Family relationships connecting Washington officials (Curtis Liedkie) to Idaho Bar oversight through the Idaho Community Foundation.

B. The Bar's Internal Corruption of the Process.

1. Ex Parte Communications (Jan. 15, 2026): Hearing Committee Chair Carole I. Wesenberg and Clerk Karen Carlisle held a secret pre-hearing conference with a Bar advocate.

2. "Rush Through" Directive (Jan. 15, 2026): A Bar Commissioner instructed the committee to "rush through this hearing."
3. Evidence Suppression: Upon Petitioner's receipt of certified proof of retaliatory censorship by Idaho Rep. Brandon Mitchell, Clerk Carlisle began rejecting filings and imposing impossible requirements.
4. Refusal to Accept Grievances: On January 21, 2026, at 8:05 PM, Clerk Carlisle wrote: "Grievances are not filed with the Professional Conduct Board. Any additional grievances received from you will be promptly deleted from my email." (Exhibit C).

C. Appearance of Impropriety in Oversight Structure.

Idaho Supreme Court Chief Justice C. Richard Bevins oversees the Idaho State Bar. Justice Bevins has an established working relationship with the Idaho Community Foundation, chaired by Hannah Liedkie. Mrs. Liedkie is a central figure in the parallel Washington state allegations and is related to Asotin County Prosecutor Curtis Liedkie, who is implicated in the alleged misuse of Washington public funds.

This relationship creates an unavoidable appearance that the state's highest judicial officer is connected to a network of individuals implicated in the very misconduct Petitioner reported. It suggests structural incapacity for impartial review at both the Bar and Supreme Court levels.

ARGUMENT

I. MANDAMUS IS PROPER TO COMPEL PERFORMANCE OF CLEAR, VIOLATED DUTIES.

Respondents have willfully refused their duties to provide a fair process, accept filings, rule on motions, and address ethical complaints against Bar officials. Clerk Carlisle's threat to delete grievances is an admission of this refusal. Idaho Code § 7-302.

II. THE MULTI-JURISDICTIONAL NATURE AND FEDERAL ALLEGATIONS DEMAND FEDERAL OVERSIGHT.

The underlying allegations—involving potential wire fraud, conspiracy to deprive rights under color of law, and cross-state retaliation—exceed the scope and authority of state bar discipline.

The Idaho State Bar's demonstrated bias and obstruction now risk compromising any federal investigation. A special federal prosecutor is necessary to investigate potential federal crimes free from local conflicts.

III. THE APPEARANCE OF IMPROPRIETY REQUIRES THIS COURT TO ACT DECISIVELY.

When the Chief Justice of the supervising court has documented relationships with individuals connected to the underlying allegations, public confidence in the entire oversight mechanism is destroyed. This Court must either:

1. Take extraordinary, transparent steps to ensure impartiality in these proceedings, or
2. Recognize that the appearance of impropriety is so profound that federal intervention is the only means to preserve justice.

IV. PETITIONER HAS NO ADEQUATE STATE REMEDY.

The Bar has declared itself immune from scrutiny. The oversight court faces apparent conflicts. Only this Court can provide relief, and only with federal collaboration can the substantive allegations be fairly investigated.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Petitioner respectfully prays that this Court:

1. ISSUE A WRIT OF MANDAMUS compelling Respondents to: a. Vacate the January 21, 2026 Order of the Professional Conduct Board. b. Accept, file, and docket all of Petitioner's submitted motions and evidence. c. Accept and process the Formal Grievance against Attorneys Carole I. Wesenberg and Karen Carlisle. d. Reopen and consolidate the records in ISB Cases 25-168a, 25-169a, and 25-187a. e. Stay all further proceedings before the Idaho State Bar in these matters.
2. ISSUE AN EMERGENCY STAY, effective immediately, halting all activity in the aforementioned bar cases.

3. ISSUE A PROTECTIVE ORDER compelling the Idaho State Bar to preserve and produce all relevant communications and records.
4. ASSERT ORIGINAL JURISDICTION over the ethical misconduct complaints against Carole I. Wesenberg and Karen Carlisle, or appoint a Special Master from outside Idaho to investigate.
5. REFER THIS MATTER TO THE UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE with a request for appointment of a special federal prosecutor to investigate: a. Potential federal crimes (wire fraud, conspiracy, deprivation of rights) arising from the underlying allegations; b. Obstruction of justice and witness retaliation evidenced in these proceedings; c. Cross-jurisdictional corruption involving officials in Idaho and Washington.
6. RETAIN JURISDICTION to monitor compliance with this Order and cooperation with federal authorities.
7. AWARD such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

MOTION FOR MISTRIAL AND DEMAND FOR IMMEDIATE STAY OF PROCEEDINGS

BEFORE THE IDAHO STATE BAR
PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT BOARD

In re: April A. Smith
ISB File No. 25-168a

Grievant: Corey M. Switzer, Pro Se

MOTION FOR MISTRIAL AND DEMAND FOR IMMEDIATE STAY OF PROCEEDINGS

NOW COMES Corey M. Switzer, Grievant ("Movant"), and respectfully moves this Hearing Committee for a Declaration of Mistrial and Immediate Stay of Proceedings in the above-referenced matter. In support thereof, Movant states as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. This disciplinary proceeding has been irreparably tainted by supervisory misconduct, procedural bad faith, and the appearance of impropriety. During the hearing of January 15, 2026, the Bar Commissioner—the supervisory authority over these proceedings—was overheard instructing a member of this Hearing Committee to "rush through the hearing." This directive, coupled with a documented pattern of procedural obstruction, deprives Movant of a fair and impartial hearing and violates fundamental due process.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

1. The Bar Commissioner's Impermissible Instruction: Entering into the Zoom proceedings on January 15, 2026, the Bar Commissioner directly instructed a member of this Committee to expedite the hearing in a manner that prioritized speed over thoroughness and fairness with the exact verbage "We're gonna rush through this hearing." This instruction was audible and witnessed, creating an indelible appearance of bias and undue influence over the Committee's deliberative independence.

2. Systemic Procedural Violations: This incident is not isolated. It is the culmination of a pattern of procedural unfairness that has plagued all three interconnected grievances (Coleman, Turner, Smith), including:

- Refusal to consolidate related matters despite overlapping facts and parties.
- Boilerplate denials of a complete, integrated evidentiary record as a "data dump."
- Boilerplate denials at the initial evidentiary stages for four interconnected individuals.
- Failure to address profound conflicts of interest, including Trae Turner's campaign donation to Justin Coleman and the employment of Turner's wife within the Nez Perce County Prosecutor's Office.

3. The Appearance of Impropriety: The Commissioner's instruction to "rush" creates an inescapable appearance that the Bar's disciplinary process is more concerned with expediency than justice, particularly in a case involving allegations of high-level corruption within the local justice system.

LEGAL ARGUMENT

1. Violation of Due Process: The Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the U.S. Constitution, and Article I, § 13 of the Idaho Constitution, guarantee the right to a fair and impartial hearing. A supervisory official's directive to "rush through" a hearing inherently undermines the Committee's duty to deliberate thoroughly and fairly, depriving Movant of his right to be fully heard.

2. Breach of Idaho Bar Commission Rules: The Commissioner's conduct violates the spirit and purpose of the Idaho Bar Commission Rules, which are designed to ensure "fair and consistent" disciplinary processes (See IBCR Preamble). Supervisory pressure to curtail proceedings compromises the integrity of the entire system.

3. Prejudgment and Bias: The instruction demonstrates a prejudgment that the matter does not merit careful review, injecting bias into the proceedings and rendering any outcome inherently suspect.

4. Compounded Prejudice: This latest violation compounds prior procedural defects, making it impossible for Movant to receive a fair hearing within the current framework. The cumulative effect is a denial of fundamental fairness.

RELIEF REQUESTED

WHEREFORE, Movant respectfully requests that this Hearing Committee:

1. GRANT a Declaration of Mistrial in ISB File No. 25-168a, voiding all proceedings to date.
2. ISSUE an Immediate Stay of all further activity in this matter pending resolution of this motion and the appointment of a new, impartial committee.
3. RECOMMEND to the Professional Conduct Board that this matter be:
 - Reassigned to a new Hearing Committee with no prior involvement and no supervisory contact with the Bar Commissioner involved in the misconduct.
 - Consolidated with the related matters of In re: Justin Coleman (25-169a) and In re: Trae Turner (25-187a) for a unified review.
 - Referred for investigation by an independent Special Prosecutor, as previously demanded, due to the insurmountable conflicts of interest and systemic procedural corruption now evident.
4. SCHEDULE an Emergency Hearing on this motion within seven (7) days.

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

I hereby certify that on this 15th day of January 2026, a true and correct copy of the foregoing Motion for Mistrial and Demand for Immediate Stay of Proceedings was served via email upon the Idaho State Bar, Bar Counsel, all members of the assigned Hearing Committee, and counsel for Respondent April A. Smith.

RE: FORMAL GRIEVANCE AND NOTICE OF IMPENDING SUPREME COURT REVIEW
Against Hearing Committee Chair Carole I. Wesenberg
For Misconduct, Ex Parte Communication, Prejudgment, and Denial of Due Process
In ISB Case No. 25-168a (In re: April Smith)

Dear Bar Counsel and Members of the Professional Conduct Board:

I, Corey M. Switzer, pro se complainant in the above-referenced matter, hereby submit this formal grievance against Hearing Committee Chair Carole I. Wesenberg for serious misconduct, engagement in improper ex parte communication, prejudgment of pending motions, and violation of fundamental due process.

This grievance is filed with the understanding that the Idaho State Bar is structurally incapable of impartially adjudicating its own misconduct. Accordingly, this matter will be presented to the Idaho State Supreme Court for immediate review.

I. FACTUAL BACKGROUND & NEW EVIDENCE

On January 21, 2026, the Professional Conduct Board issued an Order (attached as Exhibit 4) denying the following motions:

1. Motion for Mistrial and Immediate Stay (filed January 16, 2026)
2. Emergency Motion to:
 - Reopen the written record
 - Compel ruling on pending motions
 - Stay proceedings
 - Consolidate with related cases
 - Refer for impartial review

This Order was issued after Chair Wesenberg engaged in ex parte communication with Community Advocate (Sherry Montoza) on January 15, 2026, at 9:55 time stamp of the published YouTube video and after I transmitted a formal grievance against Clerk Karen Carlisle to the Idaho State Bar.

The timing and content of this Order demonstrate:

- Prejudgment and retaliation for prior grievances
- Refusal to permit independent oversight or consolidation
- Complicity in a “rush through” directive issued during the January 15, 2026 hearing

II. ALLEGATIONS OF MISCONDUCT AGAINST CAROLE I. WESENBERG

1. Ex Parte Communication – Chair Wesenberg communicated with Bar staff regarding pending motions without notice to the complainant.
2. Prejudgment of Motions – She participated in denying motions seeking impartial review, consolidation, and a stay, thereby blocking oversight.
3. Failure to Preserve Hearing Integrity – She admits to her ex parte communication. Bar Commissioner instructed the committee to “rush through” the hearing. She admits that a dialogue was had and we shall disagree with what she said exactly, and for only they know for how long.
4. Acting While Under a Conflict – She ruled on motions while personally implicated in ongoing grievances regarding procedural fairness.
5. Denial of Due Process – By denying consolidation, stay, and external review, she has ensured that these matters cannot be fairly heard within the current tainted system.

III. EVIDENCE ATTACHED

1. Exhibit 1: Video evidence of Bar Commissioner misconduct – <https://youtu.be/c-kbxKMneUc?t=9m55s>
2. Exhibit 2: Motion for Mistrial and Immediate Stay (January 16, 2026)
3. Exhibit 3: Emergency Motion (January 21, 2026)
4. Exhibit 4: January 21, 2026 Order denying all motions
5. Exhibit 5: Prior grievance against Karen Carlisle (previously submitted)

IV. ARGUMENT FOR SUPREME COURT INTERVENTION

The Board’s January 21, 2026 Order is not a neutral ruling—it is a reactive, defensive maneuver intended to shield the Bar and Attorney General from scrutiny. By denying:

- A stay
- Consolidation
- Impartial review
- Federal referral

The Board has confirmed its institutional inability to self-regulate. Chair Wesenberg's role in this denial, coupled with her ex parte communication, given her profession as a Clerk to the 9th Circuit Federal Court, proves she is not an impartial arbiter. Rather someone who feels comfortable gaming the system to her advantage.

This grievance is therefore being filed not for internal review, but as a formal notice of pending Supreme Court action. The Idaho State Bar may not judge its own fairness.

V. DEMANDED ACTION

Given the Board's demonstrated bias, I demand:

1. Immediate recusal of Carole I. Wesenberg from all Bar proceedings involving the undersigned.
2. Full disclosure of all ex parte communications involving Wesenberg, Montoza, Carlisle, and any Bar Commissioners.
3. A public acknowledgment that the January 21, 2026 Order was issued under a conflict of interest.
4. Stay of all ISB proceedings pending Supreme Court review.

VI. NOTICE OF SUPREME COURT FILING

This grievance, along with all exhibits and a writ of mandamus or petition for supervisory control, will be filed with the Idaho State Supreme Court no later than January 29th, 2026. The Bar is hereby notified that any further "orders" issued in the interim will be deemed void and retaliatory.

Respectfully submitted,

Corey M. Switzer
Complainant, ISB Case No. 25-168a

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

I hereby certify that on this 21st day of January 2026, I served a true and correct copy of this Grievance and all exhibits upon the Idaho State Bar Office of Bar Counsel, the Professional Conduct Board, and the Idaho State Supreme Court Clerk via electronic mail.

Corey M. Switzer

serious criminal allegations to the proper authorities. The attached public records evidence only reinforces the urgent need for this course correction.

WHEREFORE, Complainant respectfully requests that the Idaho State Bar Professional Conduct Board immediately:

1. GRANT this Emergency Motion in its entirety.
2. ORDER the written record for ISB Cases 25-187a, 25-169a, and 25-168a REOPENED and maintained to include all submissions made prior to and including 5:16 PM MST on January 20, 2026, AND the Public Records Response from the Idaho Legislative Services Office dated January 21, 2026.
3. ISSUE RULINGS within forty-eight (48) hours on all pending motions, including but not limited to the Motion for Mistrial (Jan. 15) and Motion for Consolidated Review (Jan. 16).
4. STAY all further proceedings, including any scheduled hearings, in the above-captioned matters.
5. CONSOLIDATE Cases 25-187a, 25-169a, and 25-168a for a single, thorough review.
6. REASSIGN the consolidated matter to a new Hearing Committee whose members have no prior involvement in these cases and no connection to the Bar Commissioner involved in the "rush through" instruction or the implicated network involving the Idaho Supreme Court and the Idaho Community Foundation.
7. DIRECT the Office of Bar Counsel to REFER the full record, including all evidence of potential federal crimes (wire fraud, conspiracy, deprivation of rights), to the U.S. Department of Justice, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and the U.S. Attorney's Offices for the Districts of Idaho and Eastern Washington.
8. PROVIDE any other relief the Board deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

Corey M. Switzer, Pro Se Complainant

The records for the appeals are closed. No further documents will be added to the Appeal Records. The Idaho Bar Commission Rules which govern the grievance/appeals dictates that pleadings should conform to the Idaho Rules of Civil Procedure.

If you wish to file a Motion or other pleading in the case, you will need to follow the Idaho Rules of Civil Procedure as they pertain to form of pleadings to be filed.

Subject: Formal Request for Procedural Guidance & Argument Against Forced Duplicative Filings – Cases 25-168a, 25-169a, 25-187a

To: Karen Carlisle <kcarlisle@isb.idaho.gov>

Cc: Joseph Pirtle <jpirtle@isb.idaho.gov>, Hearing Committee Chairs, Bar Counsel

Date: January 21, 2026

Dear Ms. Carlisle,

I am writing in response to your instructions requiring separate motions for each of the above-referenced cases, with each filing to contain only a single PDF document. I have made good-faith efforts to comply with these formatting requirements.

However, a significant procedural and substantive issue has arisen that I must bring to the Board's attention, as it affects the integrity and efficiency of these proceedings.

The Core Issue: Inextricably Interlinked Facts & Evidence

The three cases (25-168a, 25-169a, 25-187a) are not isolated incidents. They arise from a single, unified course of conduct—a reported pattern of retaliation and obstruction against a whistleblower. The Idaho State Bar's own records now contain evidence (such as the Bar Commissioner's "rush through" instruction on January 15, 2026) that demonstrates these matters are administratively and factually connected.

Consequently, the central evidence—including the public records response from the Idaho Legislative Services Office, sworn witness declarations, and documentation of alleged systemic bias—is identical and relevant to all three cases. Forcing the submission of separate motions per case does not create three distinct records; it creates three copies of the same essential record, with only the respondent's name and a handful of tailored paragraphs changed.

The Practical and Due Process Concerns of Forced Duplication

1. Judicial Economy: This requirement generates unnecessary volume, complicating the Board's review rather than streamlining it.
2. Risk of Inconsistent Records: If motions or evidence are filed separately but not identically, it could create procedural confusion or an incomplete record in one or more cases.

SWITZER 0032- EXHIBIT G

3. Substance Over Form: The Idaho Rules of Civil Procedure and the Idaho Bar Commission Rules prioritize fair and efficient adjudication. Requiring hundreds of pages of identical exhibits to be filed in triplicate elevates form over substance and places a undue burden on a pro se complainant.

4. Prejudice: The core of my pending motions is that these cases must be consolidated to be fairly evaluated. Being forced to argue for consolidation within three separate, duplicative filings is a procedural contradiction that undermines the argument itself.

Respectful Request for Guidance or Exception

I have complied with the formatting instructions for three separate motions. However, I respectfully request that the Board or the Clerk's Office:

1. Formally Acknowledge the Duplication: Recognize that the record in these three cases is substantially unified, and that future filings will inherently contain significant overlap.
2. Grant an Exception or Provide Alternate Instructions: Allow for a single set of core exhibits to be referenced across all three case files, or provide clear guidance on how to avoid prejudicial duplication while technically complying with the "separate case" rule.
3. Prioritize Ruling on the Consolidation Motions: The most logical solution to this procedural impasse is to rule on the pending Motion for Consolidated Due Process Review. If the cases are consolidated, the issue of duplicative filings becomes moot.

I am prepared to comply with all valid procedural rules. My goal is to ensure a complete and fair record for the Board's review. I believe addressing this duplication issue is a necessary step toward that end.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Respectfully,

Corey M. Switzer
Complainant, Pro Se

SWITZER 0033- EXHIBIT G

It would appear as now Ms. Carlisle is grossly aware of her situation in assisting Carole Wesenberg, and is trying to bring a level of undue pedantry to attempt to divide these three cases after Carlisle has assisted Chair Carole I. Wesenberg in conducting a closed door meeting with the community advocate via zoom, as confirmed by Wesenberg.

<https://youtu.be/OUSkpnLdNk8>

If the cases are separate, there's no duplicative responses.

If the cases are consolidated, they immediately are -not- duplicative, they're examples of government employees and agencies working in concert to obstruct justice.

Respectfully,

Mr. Corey M Switzer

Mr. Switzer:

Although I empathize with your feelings of, “undue burden on a pro se complainant,” it is necessary to file the motions separately, as there are three separate hearing committees – one for each appeal.

Ms. Carlisle,

Please have your superiors forward this grievance to the Idaho State Supreme Court.

No further action is required on your behalf. Any further attempt to justify the due process violations evident by exhibit will be further construed as an attempt to act in a reactive way instead of acting on principles.

You have demonstrated the former where the law requires the latter.

I'll also add this candidly...

Is this sincerely worth involvement of the entirety of the Idaho State Bar to cleanly cut this into so many indivisible, indecipherable segments when all I want is 40 hours with a Federal prosecutor?

I mean... If I'm clearly wrong as has been suggested, is it TRULY more expedient to go through THIS route of taking up the time of all these people, community members and valuable schedules and resources...

instead of just one person who is truly impartial, with Federal Prosecutor powers, to adjudicate this?

If I'm wrong, let me be wrong to someone who will absolutely throw me in prison forever for lying. Or the rest of you.

I'm a gambler because I have the facts on my side and I understand the odds and the law.

The problem is that you now understand that I'm not lying about the bribery, the obstruction of justice, and the proceeding cover up all the way to the Attorney General Raul Labrador and today's actions exemplified that. You likely knew about it shortly after I did.

Even if something happens to me, this evidence now exists for us all to deal with together, one way or another.

A Writ of Mandamus shall be in the postal mail regarding the two new Grievances against Carlisle and Wesenberg tomorrow, unless like Weeks, you pass it along in a truncated version to the Idaho State Supreme Court before I can drop it in the mailbox.

Sincerely,

Mr. Corey M Switzer

Subject: Unified Narrative Summary: Switzer v. Idaho/Washington Legal Officials – Allegations of Systemic Corruption, Retaliation & Obstruction

To: [Relevant Parties, Media, Oversight Bodies]
 From: Corey M. Switzer
 Date: January 20, 2026

The following is a consolidated chronological narrative of events, allegations, and procedural conflicts detailed across three phases of correspondence. This summary is intended to provide a clear, unified overview of the core issues, which involve multi-jurisdiction allegations of misconduct, retaliatory acts, and systemic obstruction.

I use "Switzer", "I", "myself" and "he" interchangeably to represent myself.

PART 1: FOUNDATION – INITIAL GRIEVANCES & IDAHO STATE BAR PROCEEDINGS

Core Story: This case originates from Corey Switzer's reports of alleged criminal activity—including police bribery and tax evasion involving Travelland RV, LLC—to Nez Perce County, Idaho officials. After what he describes as deliberate inaction and retaliation, Switzer filed formal ethics grievances with the Idaho State Bar (ISB) against:

1. Justin Coleman – Nez Perce County Prosecutor
 - Alleged failure to investigate credible evidence of bribery and tax fraud.
 - Retaliatory censorship (blocking Switzer on an official Facebook page).
 - Hiring of conflicted counsel (Trae Turner) to defend against Switzer's bar complaint.
 - Obstruction of public records requests.
2. Trae Turner – Private Attorney
 - Filing of a "false retaliatory police report" against Switzer in Clarkston, WA.
 - Representing Coleman despite an apparent conflict of interest.
3. April Smith – Deputy Prosecutor
 - Complicity in public records obstruction and failure to investigate, extramarital affair alleged with Rick Fuentes.

Narrative: Fuentes is one of the Lewiston Police Department Captains Switzer watched taking cash bribes from Tim Krueger, (deceased) former City Council Member and former owner of Travelland RV represented by Trae Turner.

ISB Process: The ISB initially dismissed the grievances. After appeals, hearings were scheduled before separate Hearing Committees. Switzer engaged in protracted procedural conflict with the ISB to admit a voluminous evidentiary record (termed a "Hearing Study Guide"), arguing the ISB was itself obstructing justice by fragmenting review and initially rejecting his submissions.

PART 2: CRITICAL ESCALATION – SYSTEMIC MISCONDUCT & FEDERAL ALLEGATIONS

In January 2026, my claims expanded from specific ethics violations to allegations of criminal conspiracy and institutional corruption.

- Motion for Mistrial: During the January 15, 2026 hearing for April Smith, a Bar Commissioner was overheard instructing the committee to "rush through this hearing." I had filed a Motion for Mistrial and Immediate Stay, arguing this proved supervisory misconduct and systemic bias.
- Unified Theory: I have formally linked all three grievances as parts of a single "pattern of institutional retaliation" and filed a Motion for Consolidated Due Process Review.
- Federal Criminal Allegations: I submitted a Memorandum Requesting Referral to Federal Prosecutor, alleging potential federal crimes:
 - Interstate wire/bank fraud related to loans to Travelland RV.
 - Conspiracy to deprive civil rights under color of law.
- New Corroboration: A sworn declaration from Sue Ann Meyers alleged an undisclosed marital relationship between prosecutor Kali Jo Parker and Trae Turner—a conflict allegedly known and ignored by Justin Coleman.
- Procedural Standoff: I have conditionally refused further participation in ISB hearings until the Bar:
 1. Accepted evidence of alleged high-level improper influence.
 2. Addressed the "rush through" misconduct.
 3. Stayed and consolidated all cases.

PART 3: HEARINGS & EVIDENTIARY ONSLAUGHT – JANUARY 12–15, 2026

This phase covers the immediate pre-hearing and hearing events, showcasing my strategy of transparency, procedural objection, and real-time evidence submission.

- Pre-Hearing Motions: I opposed Coleman's last-minute motions as dilatory and prejudicial.
- Hearing for Trae Turner (Jan 14): I submitted new evidence of a campaign donation from Turner to Coleman and highlighted contradictions in the employment and identity status of Meghan McCreary/Vittoria Puccini, alleging disability fraud and perjury.
- Hearing for April Smith (Jan 15): I submitted recorded calls and video evidence. The hearing was interrupted by the Bar Commissioner's "rush through" instruction, leading me to file for mistrial.
- Previous Allegation Against Turner before the ISB: Switzer provided evidence that Turner had falsely told a federal investigator that I was "found guilty of solicitation of a juvenile"—a charge that does not exist in Switzer's record.
- Public & Media Outreach: Myself and supporting witnesses (Sue Ann Smith, Justin Rodriguez) copied vast recipient lists, including media outlets, to maintain transparency and build external pressure.

PARALLEL NARRATIVE: WASHINGTON STATE (ASOTIN COUNTY) FRONT

Simultaneously, Switzer is engaged in a fierce dispute with Asotin County, Washington:

- Allegation: The county is unlawfully use public funds to defend Judge Brooke Burns in a judicial conduct case because of the familial relationship between Commissioner Shinn and Burns, Curtis Liedkie and Hannah Liedkie.
- Actions Taken: Formal complaint filed with the Washington State Auditor's Office (SAO Hotline H-25-795); multiple Public Records Act requests regarding Curtis Liedkie and Lisa Webber representing Judge Brooke Burns before the Washington State Supreme Court.
- Escalation: After missed deadlines, I announced intent to file state PRA lawsuits and a federal § 1983 civil rights lawsuit against Judge Burns for retaliatory social media blocking, in addition to the withheld Records of the same nature.

KEY THEMES & CURRENT STATUS

- Evolution of Claims: From specific ethics complaints to allegations of a racketeering-style conspiracy involving attorneys, law enforcement, elected officials, and Bar administrators.
- Central Conflict: I am a whistleblower facing a unified system designed to protect its own. Oversight bodies (ISB, county governments) are rightfully being accused of being structurally incapable of impartial self-regulation.
- Tactics: Mass transparency, procedural aggression, and evidence bundling are used to force consolidated, high-level review.
- Immediate Impasse (as of Jan 20, 2026): The ISB has not ruled on my's renewed motions for stay, my motion for a mistrial, my renewed motions for consolidation, or my repeated requests for federal referral. I'm offering a conditional refusal to participate which creates a procedural logjam. The next steps depend on whether the ISB addresses its own demonstrable misconduct or proceeds with the scheduled hearings in an attempt to rubber stamp it and move forward.

This unified narrative illustrates my allegations of local corruption escalating into a multi-jurisdictional crisis of confidence in legal and ethical oversight, with the whistleblower now demanding federal intervention to address what I safely characterize as state-level ethical failures masking federal crimes.

Respectfully submitted,
And seeking transparency in Justice

RE: FORMAL GRIEVANCE AGAINST KAREN CARLISLE, CLERK OF THE PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT BOARD, FOR PROCEDURAL MISCONDUCT, OBSTRUCTION OF JUSTICE, AND VIOLATION OF DUE PROCESS IN CASES 25-168a, 25-169a, AND 25-187a

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This formal grievance is filed against Karen Carlisle, Clerk of the Idaho State Bar Professional Conduct Board, for a documented pattern of arbitrary, prejudicial, and procedurally obstructive conduct in the administration of the above-referenced disciplinary appeals. Her actions have materially prejudiced the integrity of these proceedings, denied the Complainant a fair opportunity to be heard, and demonstrate an abuse of her administrative authority that violates fundamental due process.
2. This grievance is based on Ms. Carlisle's own written communications dated January 20-21, 2026, which are attached as Exhibit A, and on newly disclosed evidence of her participation in improper ex parte communications, attached as Exhibit B.

II. BACKGROUND

1. The Complainant is the pro se complainant in three interconnected Idaho State Bar disciplinary cases (25-168a, 25-169a, 25-187a) arising from a unified pattern of alleged retaliation and obstruction against a whistleblower. The factual and evidentiary overlap between these cases is substantial and documented.
2. Ms. Carlisle, as Clerk, holds a purely administrative and ministerial role: to accept filings, maintain the record, and facilitate the orderly process of the Board. She holds no adjudicative authority to rule on motions, exclude evidence, make substantive procedural determinations, or engage in substantive communications about a pending case outside the presence of all parties.

III. SPECIFIC ALLEGATIONS OF MISCONDUCT

A. ARBITRARY EXCLUSION OF TIMELY EVIDENCE

1. On January 20, 2026, at 5:16 PM MST, Complainant submitted supplemental materials for the record in Case No. 25-187a, within a publicly stated deadline of 5:00 PM that same day.

2. At 5:16 PM, Ms. Carlisle responded: "This email was received at 5:16 p.m. and will not be included in the record." (Exhibit A, p.4).

3. This unilateral, arbitrary refusal to accept evidence submitted within a reasonable and communicated timeframe constitutes prejudicial gatekeeping without authority. It deprives the Hearing Committee of material evidence and violates the Complainant's right to a complete record.

B. PARTICIPATION IN IMPROPER EX PARTE COMMUNICATIONS

1. During the January 15, 2026 hearing for Case No. 25-168a (In re: April Smith), Hearing Committee Chair Carole I. Wesenberg confirmed that she, along with Karen Carlisle, held a closed-door meeting with the Community Advocate via Zoom prior to the hearing. A recording of Chair Wesenberg acknowledging this meeting is provided (Exhibit B).

2. This meeting was conducted without notice to, or participation of, the Complainant. It constitutes a clear violation of procedural fairness and the prohibition against ex parte communications in adjudicative proceedings. By facilitating and participating in this secret meeting, Ms. Carlisle ceased acting as a neutral clerk and became an active participant in a process designed to prejudice the Complainant's case outside of the open record.

C. ISSUING CONTRADICTION, IMPOSSIBLE, AND SHIFTING FILING INSTRUCTIONS

1. On January 21, 2026, Complainant attempted to file an Emergency Motion. Ms. Carlisle engaged in a series of contradictory, hyper-technical instructions that served no purpose other than to obstruct filing:

- 1:57 PM: Motion rejected as "not the proper format." (Exhibit A, p.9)
- 2:10 PM: Instructed to submit in "one single pdf document." (Exhibit A, p.11)
- 2:34 PM: After compliance, motion rejected because "cases are not consolidated." (Exhibit A, p.13)
- 3:26-3:50 PM: Complainant submits three separate motions per her instruction. She then rejects them for containing "additional attachments" and "duplicative pages." (Exhibit A, pp.15-22)

1. These ever-changing, opaque requirements represent procedural bad faith and create an impossible labyrinth for a pro se complainant, effectively denying access to the tribunal.

D. USURPING THE ADJUDICATIVE ROLE OF THE BOARD

1. Ms. Carlisle repeatedly made substantive determinations far beyond her clerical authority:

- "This will not be filed." (Exhibit A, p.17)
- "The records for the appeals are closed." (Exhibit A, p.16)
- "This is not the proper format to submit a Motion for an appeal case." (Exhibit A, p.9)

2. These are substantive procedural rulings that only the Hearing Committee or Board may make. By making them, she has acted as an unappointed, unqualified, and biased gatekeeper, depriving the Complainant of review by the actual decision-makers.

E. REFUSAL TO ACKNOWLEDGE INTERCONNECTED CASES & FORCING PROCEDURAL ABSURDITY

1. The core of Complainant's pending motions is that these three cases arise from the same facts, involve the same actors, and must be consolidated for a fair review.

2. Ms. Carlisle's insistence on completely separate, non-duplicative filings is logically impossible given the overlapping evidence and creates a procedural catch-22: the Complainant cannot argue for consolidation within three entirely separate records without duplication. This elevates pedantic form over substantive justice and judicial economy.

IV. IMPACT AND PREJUDICE

1. Ms. Carlisle's conduct has caused direct and irreparable prejudice:

- Evidence Suppression: Critical evidence and motions are being kept from the Hearing Committee.
- Secret, Biased Communications: Her participation in closed-door meetings with the adjudicator and a third party irreparably taints the impartiality of the entire proceeding for Case 25-168a and calls into question her role in all related cases.
- Resource Exhaustion: Complainant's time and effort are wasted on procedural games rather than case merits.
- Validation of Systemic Bias: Her actions exemplify the very "rigged system" and institutional resistance alleged in the underlying complaints.
- Denial of Due Process: A fair hearing cannot occur when the clerk administering the process arbitrarily blocks filings, engages in ex parte communications, and acts as a partisan gatekeeper.

V. VIOLATIONS

1. Ms. Carlisle's actions violate:

- Idaho Bar Commission Rules governing fair procedure, the role of Bar staff, and prohibitions on ex parte communications.
- The Duty of Impartiality and Neutrality owed by all Bar officials to parties before the Board.
- Fundamental Due Process under the Idaho and U.S. Constitutions, including the right to be heard, to a neutral tribunal, and to a meaningful opportunity to present evidence free from secret, prejudicial communications.
- The Public Trust in the Bar as an impartial disciplinary body.

VI. REQUESTED ACTION

1. Complainant respectfully demands that the Idaho State Bar immediately:

1. Remove Karen Carlisle from any administrative role involving Cases 25-168a, 25-169a, and 25-187a, and from any future involvement with Complainant's matters.

2. Reopen the Record in all three cases to include every submission she refused or excluded, particularly the January 20, 2026, 5:16 PM submission and all versions of the January 21, 2026, Emergency Motion.

3. Declare a Mistrial in Case 25-168a (In re: Smith) due to the irreparable prejudice caused by the improper ex parte communications involving Ms. Carlisle, Chair Wesenberg, and the Community Advocate.

4. Issue an Immediate Ruling on the pending Motion for Consolidated Due Process Review, as her conduct makes the necessity of consolidation undeniably clear.

5. Launch a Formal Investigation into Ms. Carlisle's conduct in this matter, including her role in the January 15 ex parte meeting, to determine whether this represents a pattern of obstructive and biased behavior.

6. Assign a New, Impartial Clerk to administer these proceedings, with written acknowledgment of the interconnected nature of the cases.

7. Provide a Written Response to this grievance within seven (7) business days, outlining steps taken.

VII. CONCLUSION

1. The attached evidence demonstrates a prima facie case of profound procedural misconduct and ethical breaches by a Bar official. Karen Carlisle has transitioned from a neutral clerk to an active participant in obstructing filings, engaging in secret communications, and acting as a substantive gatekeeper. The Idaho State Bar cannot credibly adjudicate ethics complaints against attorneys while allowing its own staff to engage in conduct that systematically denies a complainant a fair hearing. Her actions demand immediate and severe corrective action to preserve any shred of integrity remaining in the disciplinary process.

I. RELIEF REQUESTED

Complainant respectfully moves this Board for the following emergency relief:

1. REOPEN and maintain the written record for Case No. 25-168a to include all supplemental submissions.
2. COMPEL an immediate ruling on the pending Motion for Mistrial and Immediate Stay filed January 15, 2026, and all other pending motions.
3. STAY all further proceedings in this matter.
4. CONSOLIDATE this case with related Cases No. 25-187a (Turner) and 25-169a (Coleman) for a single, fair review.
5. REFER the consolidated matters to a new, impartial hearing committee and to federal law enforcement authorities for investigation of potential federal crimes evidenced in the record.

II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

This grievance against Respondent April Smith is fundamentally interconnected with the matters against Trae Turner and Justin Coleman. The hearing in this very case triggered the most egregious proof of institutional bias:

A. The "Rush Through" Instruction Requiring Mistrial: On January 15, 2026, during the hearing for THIS CASE, a Bar Commissioner was overheard instructing this Hearing Committee to "rush through this hearing." This directive is unambiguous supervisory misconduct, gross prejudgment, and a direct violation of due process. A Motion for Mistrial and Immediate Stay was filed that same day. No ruling has been issued. This incident proves the proceedings are irreparably tainted and that the bias affects all related cases.

B. Improper Exclusion of Evidence in Related Matters: The Clerk's subsequent arbitrary refusal to accept timely-filed evidence in the related Turner case (25-187a) on January 20 demonstrates a pattern of procedural unfairness that compromises the entire disciplinary apparatus overseeing these linked matters.

C. New Documentary Proof of Retaliatory Pattern: On January 21, 2026, Complainant obtained an official public records response from the Idaho Legislative Services Office. This document includes a Facebook message thread showing Idaho State Representative Brandon Mitchell blocking Complainant after he reported corruption. This documented, unconstitutional retaliation is part of the same environment in which Respondent Smith allegedly engaged in obstructive conduct.

D. Evidence of Interconnected Relationships: Respondent Smith's alleged personal relationship with police captain Rick Fuentes—a central figure in the underlying bribery allegations—ties her conduct directly to the core facts of the Turner and Coleman cases. Her alleged role in obstructing public records requests further illustrates her part in the unified pattern of suppression.

III. ARGUMENT

The Bar Commissioner's command to "rush through" this hearing is a fatal blow to its legitimacy. It confirms Complainant's allegations of a system designed to protect connected officials through expedited, superficial review. This misconduct cannot be cured within the current framework. Furthermore, the factual allegations against Smith—involving the same police corruption, the same cover-up, and the same retaliation as the Turner and Coleman cases—make isolated review logically impossible and fundamentally unfair.

Granting the already-pending Motion for Mistrial is the minimum required step. The only path to a just outcome is to declare a mistrial, stay all proceedings, consolidate the three matters, and refer them to an unimpeachable forum.

IV. CONCLUSION

When the supervising authority instructs a hearing committee to "rush through" a case, the process has ceased to be a search for truth and has become a ceremonial denial of justice. This Board must act decisively to reclaim its integrity.

WHEREFORE, Complainant respectfully requests that the Board immediately GRANT the pending Motion for Mistrial and grant this Emergency Motion in its entirety.

DATE: January 21, 2026

I. INTRODUCTION & RELIEF REQUESTED

Complainant Corey M. Switzer files this Emergency Motion in response to a critical procedural impasse and newly evidenced institutional bias that irreparably taint these proceedings. The Idaho State Bar ("ISB") has: (1) improperly refused to accept timely supplemental evidence; (2) failed to rule on multiple pending motions for over six days; (3) demonstrated supervisory misconduct via a Bar Commissioner's instruction to "rush through" a hearing; and (4) is allegedly compromised by relationships between its overseeing Supreme Court and key figures in these matters. Furthermore, newly obtained public records provide documented proof of retaliatory conduct by a state official. Immediate action is required to prevent a denial of justice.

Complainant respectfully moves this Board for the following relief:

1. Reopen and maintain the written record for all three consolidated cases.
2. Issue immediate rulings on all pending motions.
3. Stay all further disciplinary proceedings.
4. Consolidate Cases 25-187a, 25-169a, and 25-168a.
5. Reassign the consolidated matter to a new, independent hearing committee with no ties to the current ISB apparatus or implicated officials.
6. Refer the accumulated evidence of potential federal crimes to the appropriate federal authorities.

II. FACTUAL & PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

A. The Unified Allegations and Escalation to Federal Claims.

As detailed in the Unified Narrative Summary submitted January 20, 2026, these three grievances are inextricably linked parts of a single alleged pattern: retaliation and obstruction by legal officials against a whistleblower reporting corruption. The evidence has evolved to allege a multi-jurisdictional conspiracy involving wire fraud, deprivation of rights under color of law, and racketeering activity, warranting federal investigation.

B. Documentary Proof of Retaliatory Censorship.

On January 21, 2026, Complainant received an official public records response from the Idaho Legislative Services Office (attached). It contains the Facebook message thread between Complainant and Idaho State Representative Brandon Mitchell. In this thread, dated November 5, Complainant informs Rep. Mitchell that blocking him on a political Facebook page for reporting corruption violates the Supreme Court precedent in Lindke v. Freed. Rep. Mitchell's response—citing his "social media policy"—confirms the retaliatory censorship that is a central allegation in these proceedings. This is direct, documented evidence of the "pattern of institutional retaliation" that links all three cases.

C. The "Rush Through" Instruction and Motion for Mistrial.

On January 15, 2026, during the hearing for Case No. 25-168a (Smith), a Bar Commissioner was overheard instructing the committee to "rush through this hearing." This directive constitutes undeniable supervisory misconduct, proving prejudgment and a intent to deny a full and fair hearing. A Motion for Mistrial and Immediate Stay was filed that same day (January 15, 2026). No ruling has been issued.

D. Improper Closure of the Record and Refusal of Evidence.

Complainant formally notified the Board that the record for Case No. 25-187a (Turner) would remain open for supplemental submissions until 5:00 PM MST on January 20, 2026. A critical supplemental filing was submitted at approximately 5:16 PM MST. On January 21, 2026, Clerk Karen Carlisle stated, "This email was received at 5:16 p.m. and will not be included in the record." This arbitrary refusal to accept evidence submitted within a publicly stated and reasonable deadline is a blatant procedural violation designed to exclude material evidence.

E. Unreasonable Delay in Ruling on Pending Motions.

As of January 21, 2026, at least two critical motions have been pending without a ruling for over six (6) days, including the Motion for Mistrial and the Motion for Unified Judicial Notice & Consolidated Due Process Review filed January 16, 2026. This delay paralyzes the process and denies Complainant basic procedural rights.

F. Evidence of Systemic Bias and Institutional Conflict.

New evidence suggests a profound conflict within the oversight structure itself. Idaho Supreme Court Chief Justice C. Richard Bevins, who oversees the ISB, has an intimate working relationship with the Idaho Community Foundation, chaired by Hannah Liedkie. Mrs. Liedkie is a central figure in the parallel Washington state allegations and is related to Asotin County Prosecutor Curtis Liedkie, who is implicated in the alleged misuse of public funds. This relationship creates an appearance of impropriety and suggests the state's highest judicial and disciplinary bodies are incapable of impartial review.

III. ARGUMENT

A. The Proceedings Are Irreparably Tainted by Procedural Misconduct and Bias.

The Clerk's capricious exclusion of evidence, combined with the Bar Commissioner's command to "rush," demonstrates a systemic effort to curtail a fair hearing. These acts validate Complainant's allegations of a corrupted process designed to protect connected officials rather than investigate serious misconduct. Due process cannot survive in such an environment.

B. The Documented Pattern of Retaliation Demands Consolidated Review.

The newly obtained public record is not an isolated incident; it is a documented piece of the retaliatory pattern that forms the core of all three grievances. The ISB's continued fragmentation of these cases ignores this unified factual basis. Hearing them in isolation creates a misleading and incomplete picture, violating principles of fundamental fairness and judicial economy.

C. The Gravity of the Allegations Demands Federal Scrutiny and a Stay.

The evidence now includes: (1) sworn testimony of undisclosed marital conflicts between a prosecutor and respondent; (2) allegations of felony fraud; (3) cross-jurisdictional retaliation; and (4) documented, unconstitutional censorship by a state legislator. These are not mere ethical violations but evidence of potential federal crimes and systemic corruption. The ISB's disciplinary process is ill-equipped to investigate this. Continuing state-level proceedings risks obstructing a federal investigation and sanctions a parody of due process.

IV. CONCLUSION

The Idaho State Bar stands at a precipice. It can continue down a path of demonstrable procedural unfairness, exclusion of evidence, and disregard for its own rules, thereby eroding all public confidence. Or, it can act decisively to restore integrity by halting the current flawed process, consolidating the matters, and referring the serious criminal allegations to the proper authorities. The attached public records evidence only reinforces the urgent need for this course correction.

WHEREFORE, Complainant respectfully requests that the Idaho State Bar Professional Conduct Board immediately:

1. GRANT this Emergency Motion in its entirety.
2. ORDER the written record for ISB Cases 25-187a, 25-169a, and 25-168a REOPENED and maintained to include all submissions made prior to and including 5:16 PM MST on January 20, 2026, AND the Public Records Response from the Idaho Legislative Services Office dated January 21, 2026.
3. ISSUE RULINGS within forty-eight (48) hours on all pending motions, including but not limited to the Motion for Mistrial (Jan. 15) and Motion for Consolidated Review (Jan. 16).
4. STAY all further proceedings, including any scheduled hearings, in the above-captioned matters.
5. CONSOLIDATE Cases 25-187a, 25-169a, and 25-168a for a single, thorough review.

6. REASSIGN the consolidated matter to a new Hearing Committee whose members have no prior involvement in these cases and no connection to the Bar Commissioner involved in the "rush through" instruction or the implicated network involving the Idaho Supreme Court and the Idaho Community Foundation.
7. DIRECT the Office of Bar Counsel to REFER the full record, including all evidence of potential federal crimes (wire fraud, conspiracy, deprivation of rights), to the U.S. Department of Justice, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and the U.S. Attorney's Offices for the Districts of Idaho and Eastern Washington.
8. PROVIDE any other relief the Board deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

Corey M. Switzer, Pro Se Complainant

INTRODUCTION

On October 7, 2025, Petitioner filed with the Idaho Supreme Court a Motion For Disqualification of Chief Justice G. Richard Bevan. Attached to that motion was a Motion to Disqualify Senior Judge Juneal Kerrick and To Stay Proceedings. On October 15, 2025, Petitioner filed a Motion for Judicial Review and Reconsideration of Orders Issued by Chief Justice Bevan.

The Motion to Disqualify Judge Juneal Kerrick and To Stay Proceedings asked the Court, “pursuant to Idaho Code 1-215 and the Court’s inherent supervisory authority,” to 1) Disqualify Senior Judge Juneal Kerrick from presiding over this matter; and 2) Stay all proceedings in Idaho State Bar No. 25-208(a) pending the Court’s resolution of the consolidated Petitions for Extraordinary Writs and the pending Motion for Disqualification of Chief Justice G. Richard Bevan.

On October 20, 2025, the Court entered its Order Denying Supplemental Notice, Motion for Disqualification, and Motion for Judicial Review and Reconsideration.

ANALYSIS

Petitioner contends that the October 8, 2025 Scheduling Order in this proceeding “violates the procedural hold and demonstrates contempt for the Idaho Supreme Court’s oversight.” Petitioner’s argument rests on his contention that on September 4, 2025, Lori Ostertag from the Idaho State Bar “issued a formal hold on all PCB proceedings relating to Petitioner’s cases.” Petitioner’s pleading characterizes Ms. Ostertag as Bar Counsel, though her role was that of Interim Clerk of the Professional Conduct Board.

However, by the Court’s Order entered July 7, 2025, this particular grievance proceeding was assigned to this Hearing Officer and the Idaho State Bar was no longer tasked with conducting any further proceedings other than to provide clerical and logistical assistance to this Hearing Officer. Therefore, any communication advising Petitioner of any stay applied to “all of your cases with the PCB” before the Idaho State Bar, not this matter which had been reassigned some two months earlier pursuant to IBCR 508 and 509. Petitioner recognized that distinction, based on the Motion to Stay Proceedings he included in his Motion to Disqualify Senior Judge Kerrick.

As an additional ground for disqualification, Petitioner contends that this Hearing Officer’s impartiality “might reasonably be questioned” based on the fact that the appointment was made by Chief Justice Bevan; that a hearing was scheduled despite “a formal hold,” and that the hearing was scheduled through Karen Carlisle, whom Petitioner asserts has a conflict.

However, Petitioner cites no authority by which a hearing officer appointed pursuant to IBCR 508 can be disqualified. Petitioner waited over three months from the Order of Appointment to file his Motion to Disqualify, which certainly was untimely. Also, the Court’s denial of Petitioner’s Motion to Disqualify Justice Bevan disposes of Petitioner’s argument that the appointment was without basis. Further, Petitioner has adduced no facts or argument in support of a claim that the hearing officer’s impartiality might reasonably be questioned.

Petitioner also contends that since Karen Carlisle from the Idaho State Bar assisted with scheduling the hearing, this hearing officer should be disqualified. Petitioner presents no authority to support this contention. In contrast, the Court has previously ordered that the Idaho State Bar is directed to assist the hearing officer in “facilitating the hearing.”

Petitioner claims that proceeding with a hearing pending his writs being addressed would cause irreparable harm. Specifically, though, his Prayer for Relief requests a stay until the Court rules on the consolidated Petitions and the Motion for Disqualification of Chief Justice Bevan. The Motion for Disqualification of Chief Justice Bevan has already been denied, and Petitioner has not demonstrated facts sufficient to support a finding of irreparable harm stemming from unspecified motions or pleadings that may not even relate to this matter.

CONCLUSION

Petitioner's Motion to Disqualify Senior Judge Juneal Kerrick and Stay Proceedings is DENIED.

Dated this 15th day of November, 2025.

2025 Annual Meeting and Anniversary Gala Recap by Teresa A. Baker

August 28, 2025 by ccarns

The Idaho State Bar celebrated its 100th Anniversary in conjunction with the 50th Anniversary of the Idaho Law Foundation in Boise at Jack's Urban Meeting Place ("JUMP") in July 2025.

The celebration began with a leadership social on Tuesday, July 15th with members of the ISB Board of Commissioners, the ILF Board of Directors, officers of the District Bar Associations and Practice Sections in attendance. The social was held in the offices of Stoel Rives, LLP on the 19th floor overlooking beautiful downtown Boise.

The following day, Wednesday, July 16th began with a noon luncheon and the Idaho Law Foundation ("ILF") Annual Meeting led by the ILF President Sunrise Ayers of Boise. The election of new board members was held with Michelle Crist-Aguiar, and Lynette M. Davis, both of Boise, Corey J. Smith of Coeur d'Alene and Carole Wesenberg of Pocatello elected for three-year terms. Outgoing Board member and Past President Fonda L. Jovick of Sandpoint was honored for her nine years of service.

At this luncheon, the Future Fund campaign was launched. With 2025 marking the 50th Anniversary of the Idaho Law Foundation, this campaign is an opportunity to make plans for future Idahoans through the Idaho Law Foundation's Endowment Fund to provide sustainable, long-term funding for Foundation programs, positively impacting our community in the areas of civic education and access to justice. The Future Fund campaign's goal is to increase the Endowment from nearly $650,000 to $1,000,000 by the end of 2025. Pledges are designed to spread financial commitment from donors throughout the next five years.

Idaho Volunteer Lawyers Program volunteer Abigail Schultz of Boise, spoke about the impact that her volunteer work has had on her and her clients. Additionally, Samara Coleman, a four-year high school mock trial participant and recipient of the Top 10 Attorney Award at the 2025 National High School Mock Trial Championship, talked to the attendees about the influence the program has on students as she heads toward college.

The Idaho State Bar and Idaho Law Foundation Service Awards were then presented to attorneys and non-attorneys from around the Gem State who have provided volunteer time to support the work of the Bar and the Law Foundation. Those honored include Diane K. Minnich, retired executive director of the ISB/ILF, the Honorable Debora K. Grasham, Taylor Mossman-Fletcher, William K. Fletcher, and Kenneth C. Howell, all of Boise, Fonda L. Jovich of Sandpoint, and Amanda E. Ulrich of Idaho Falls. The Section of the Year Award was then presented to the members of the Idaho Legal History Section for their work and financial contributions to support the publishing of Tents to Towers: The History of the Practice of Law in Idaho. Section Chair Christopher P. Graham and other members of the section present accepted the award. The luncheon concluded with Maureen Ryan Braley, Executive Director, thanking the ISB/ILF staff in attendance for their service to the profession and their work on the anniversary programs and events.

Next, two one-hour legal history CLEs were presented by Mr. Chris Graham, Judge Jessica M. Lorello, and Kolby K. Reddish, all of Boise. Their presentations explored notorious cases and appeals in Idaho legal history. Each CLE was attended by over 110 attorneys in person and via webcast.

The highly anticipated Anniversary Gala kicked off that evening with a 1920s speakeasy themed cocktail hour including jazz music from the Frim Fram Four, festive drinks in commemorative engraved glasses and decorations that took attendees back to the glamour of the Gatsby era. Attendees joined in the festivities by donning their best 1920s attire with beads, sequins, tails, gloves and feathers and posed for photos with a backdrop commemorating the special evening.

The program began with President Mary V. York of Boise, and immediate past President Jillian H. Caires of Coeur d'Alene, acting as mistresses of ceremony. A champagne toast was given by President York congratulating the members on the past and future of the legal profession in Idaho. They then introduced the other ISB commissioners, the ILF Board of Directors, the Anniversary Committee, the evening's honorees and the other dignitaries. They also introduced and thanked the many anniversary sponsors whose financial contributions made the gala possible. Lastly, they thanked Idaho artist Dan Looney for his donation of a painting entitled "Idaho Law: The Beginning." The limited edition signed prints of painting are available for purchase with proceeds benefitting the Foundation. Congratulatory remarks were given by Chief Justice G. Richard Bevan of the Idaho Supreme Court. Dinner, styled from the 1920s era, was then served to the over 260 guests in attendance.

After dinner, the keynote address "Tents to Towers: Bringing Idaho's Legal History to Life" was given by Judge Grasham. During her forty-five-minute presentation, she walked attendees through the past century through colorful stories and pictures of Idaho's attorneys, judges and litigants. These stories and more were all captured in the newly published book "Tents to Towers: The History of the Practice of Law in Idaho." Copies of this book are available for purchase with proceeds also benefiting the Foundation.[i]

After the presentation, ILF Past President Jovick was invited to the stage to introduce the Foundation's Future Fund to the audience. A short video of volunteers from the Foundation's various programs was played detailing the impact of the Foundation's programs have on Idaho communities. Ms. Jovick then solicited donations to the Future Fund from the audience. Throughout the day's events there was over $80,000 pledged to the Future Fund by attendees. This is the largest amount of money pledged to the Law Foundation in a single day in its 50-year history.[ii]

Next, the evening's awards were presented. The 2025 Outstanding Young Lawyer Award was presented to Alexandra Hodson of Boise, and the 2025 Distinguished Lawyer Awards were presented to Charles A. Homer of Idaho Falls and Tim Gresback of Moscow. Each award recipient was introduced with a short video of an interview by a colleague or friend and then each graciously accepted their award at the podium and introduced their families and friends in attendance.

The celebration closed with the passing of the gavel to the new Idaho State Bar President Kristin Bjorkman of Boise, and more jazz music as attendees said their goodbyes.

The Anniversary Gala and events throughout the rest of 2025 would not be possible without the support of our very generous sponsors. The sponsors include the Fourth District Bar as the platinum sponsor, the University of Idaho College of Law, Holland & Hart, Parsons Behle & Latimer and Hawley Troxell as gold sponsors and silver sponsors River's Edge Mediation, Stoel Rives LLP, Brassey Crawford, Johnson May and the Idaho Community Foundation.

Teresa A. Baker is a member of the Idaho State Bar. After practicing law for 20 years, she decided to serve her fellow attorneys and currently is the Program and Legal Education Director for the Idaho State Bar and Idaho Law Foundation.

Corey Switzer I'm a crook now? You're getting very close to libel. I would suggest you be careful in your choice of words and allegations. I can tell you that I've had several people reach out to me due to your immature behavior on my social medias, some that are watching closely and have much more power than I to seek out legal ramifications of improper conduct. I know that you're not going to stop, and I certainly cannot stop you on my official page - I'm just hoping you enjoy your freedoms enough to think twice about your comments, the amount of them, the content of them, and the government's ability to track you.
